

Who is Jesus? Part 4

The Word Made Flesh

And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

John 1:14

The Light Has Come into the World

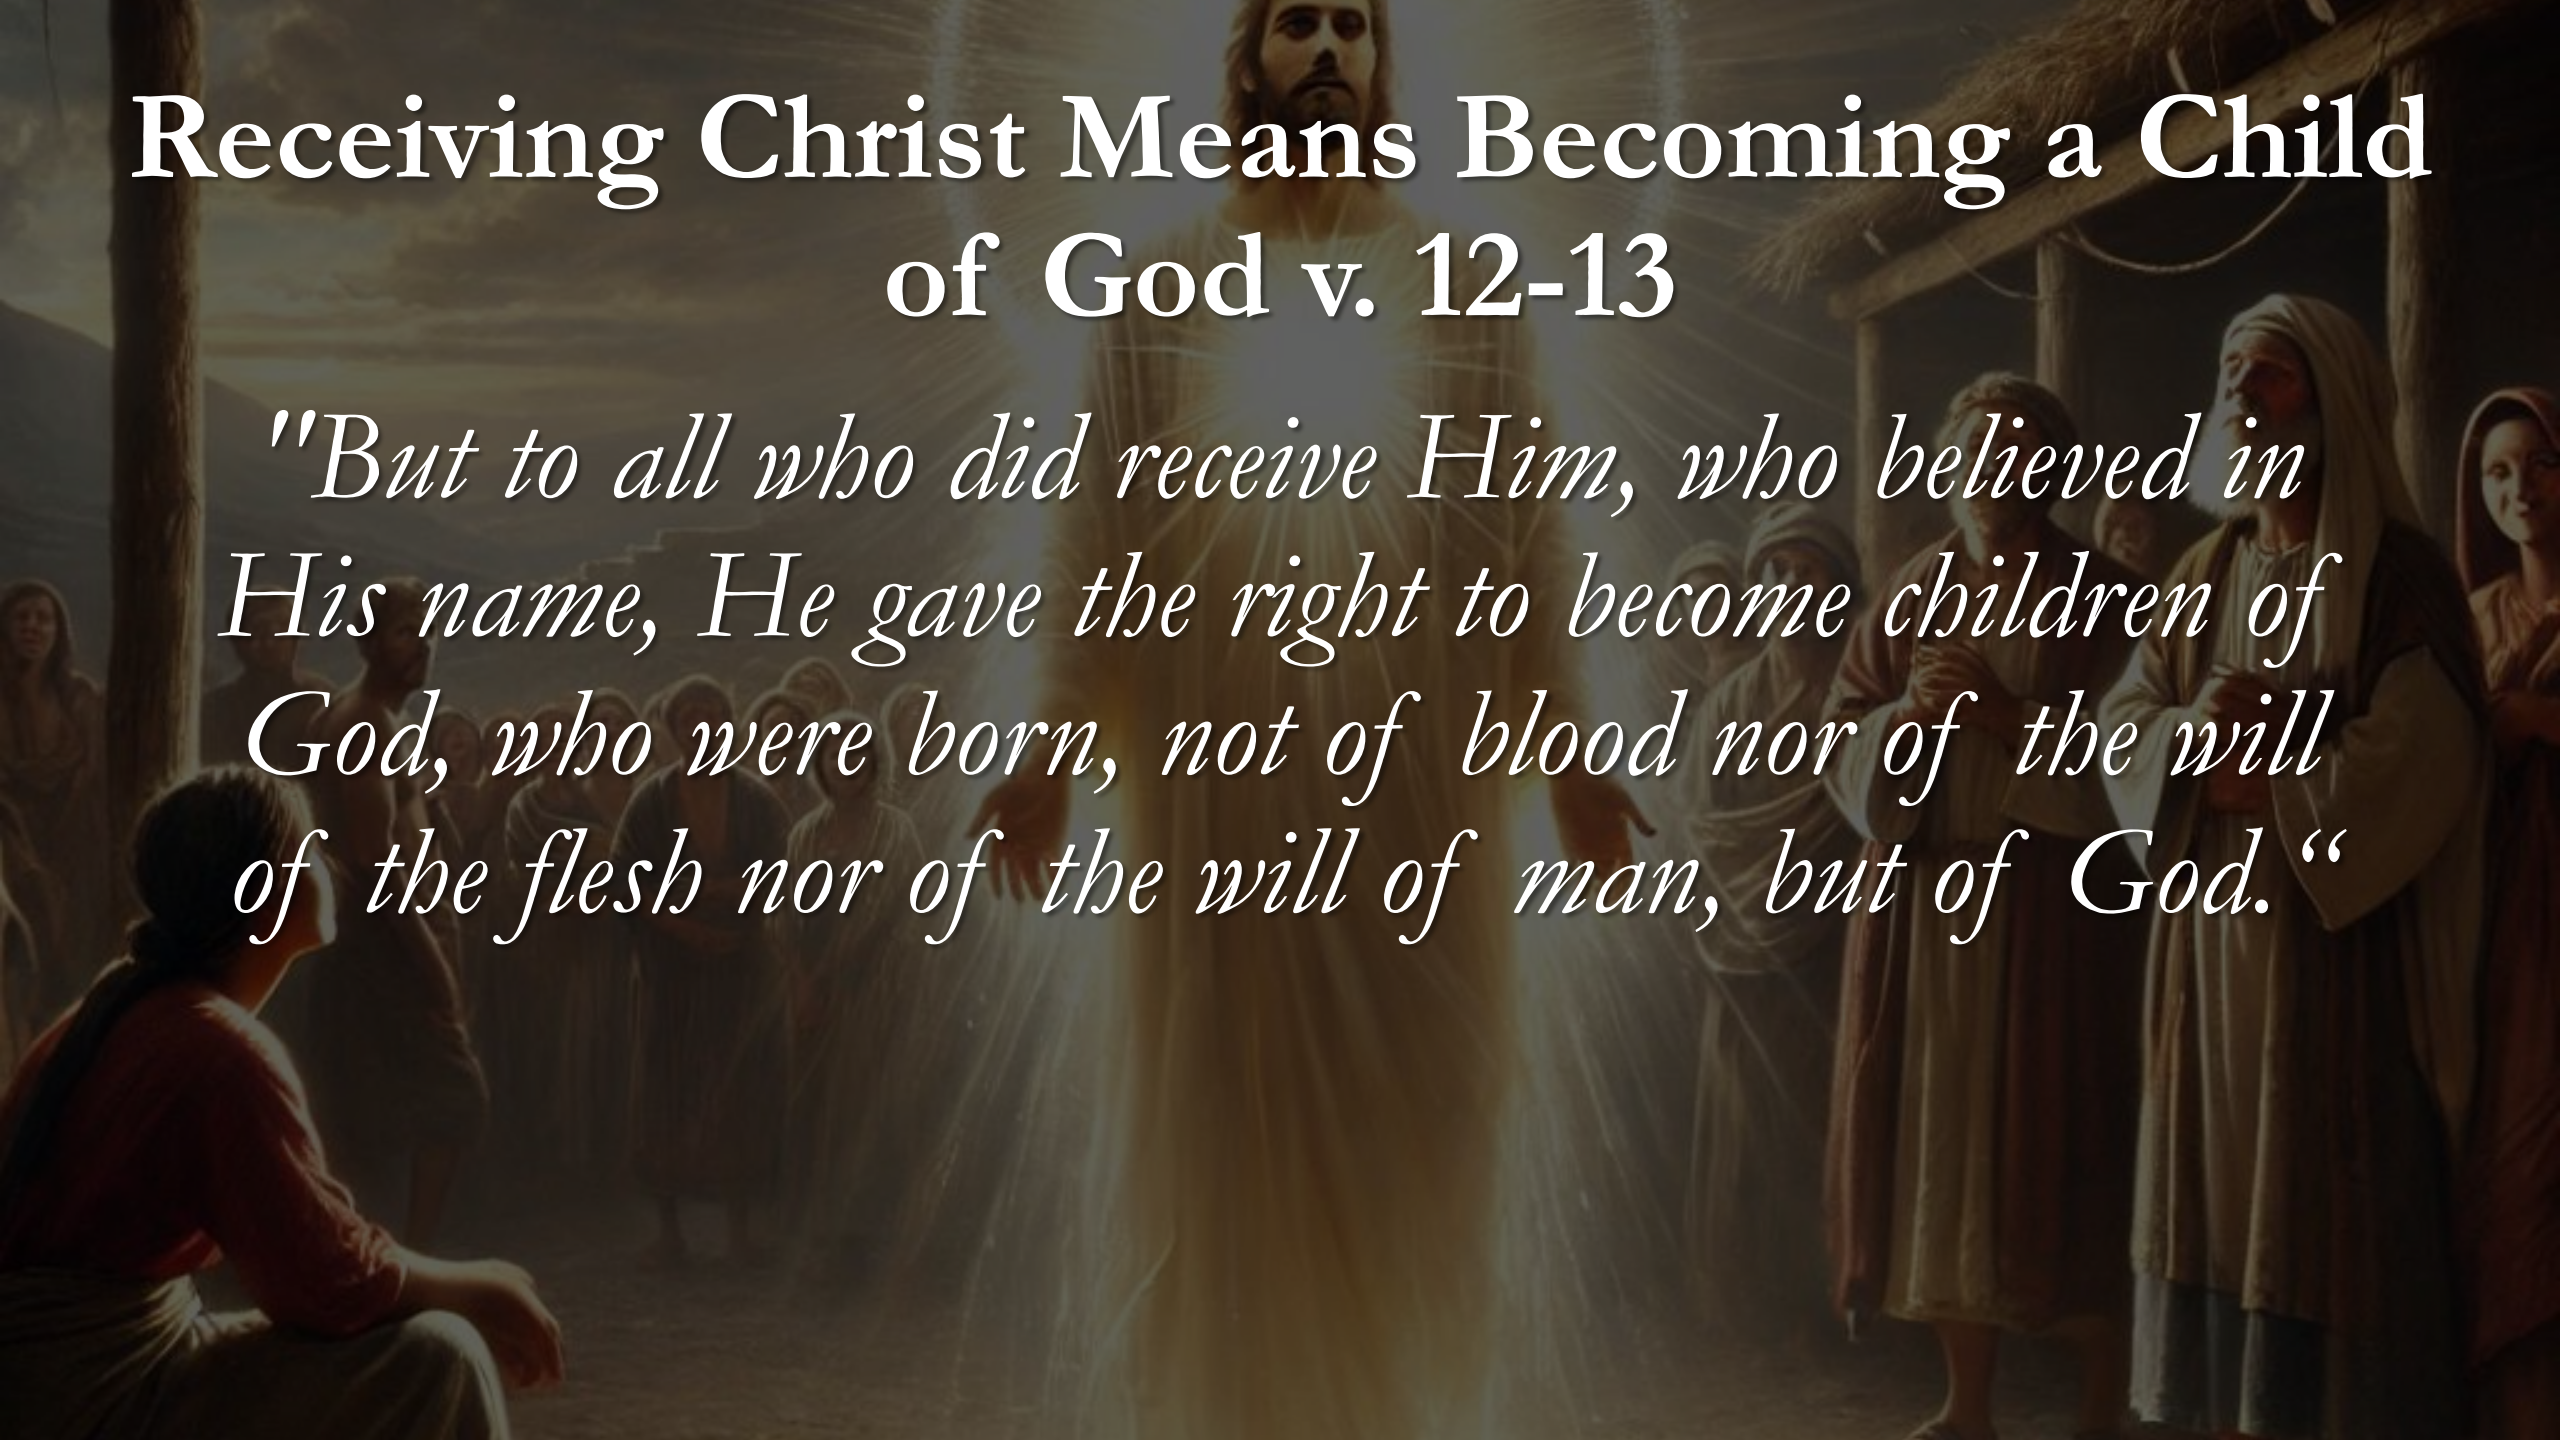

v. 9-11

The true light, which gives light to everyone, was coming into the world. He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, yet the world did not know Him. He came to His own, and His own people did not receive Him.“

The Light Has Come into the World

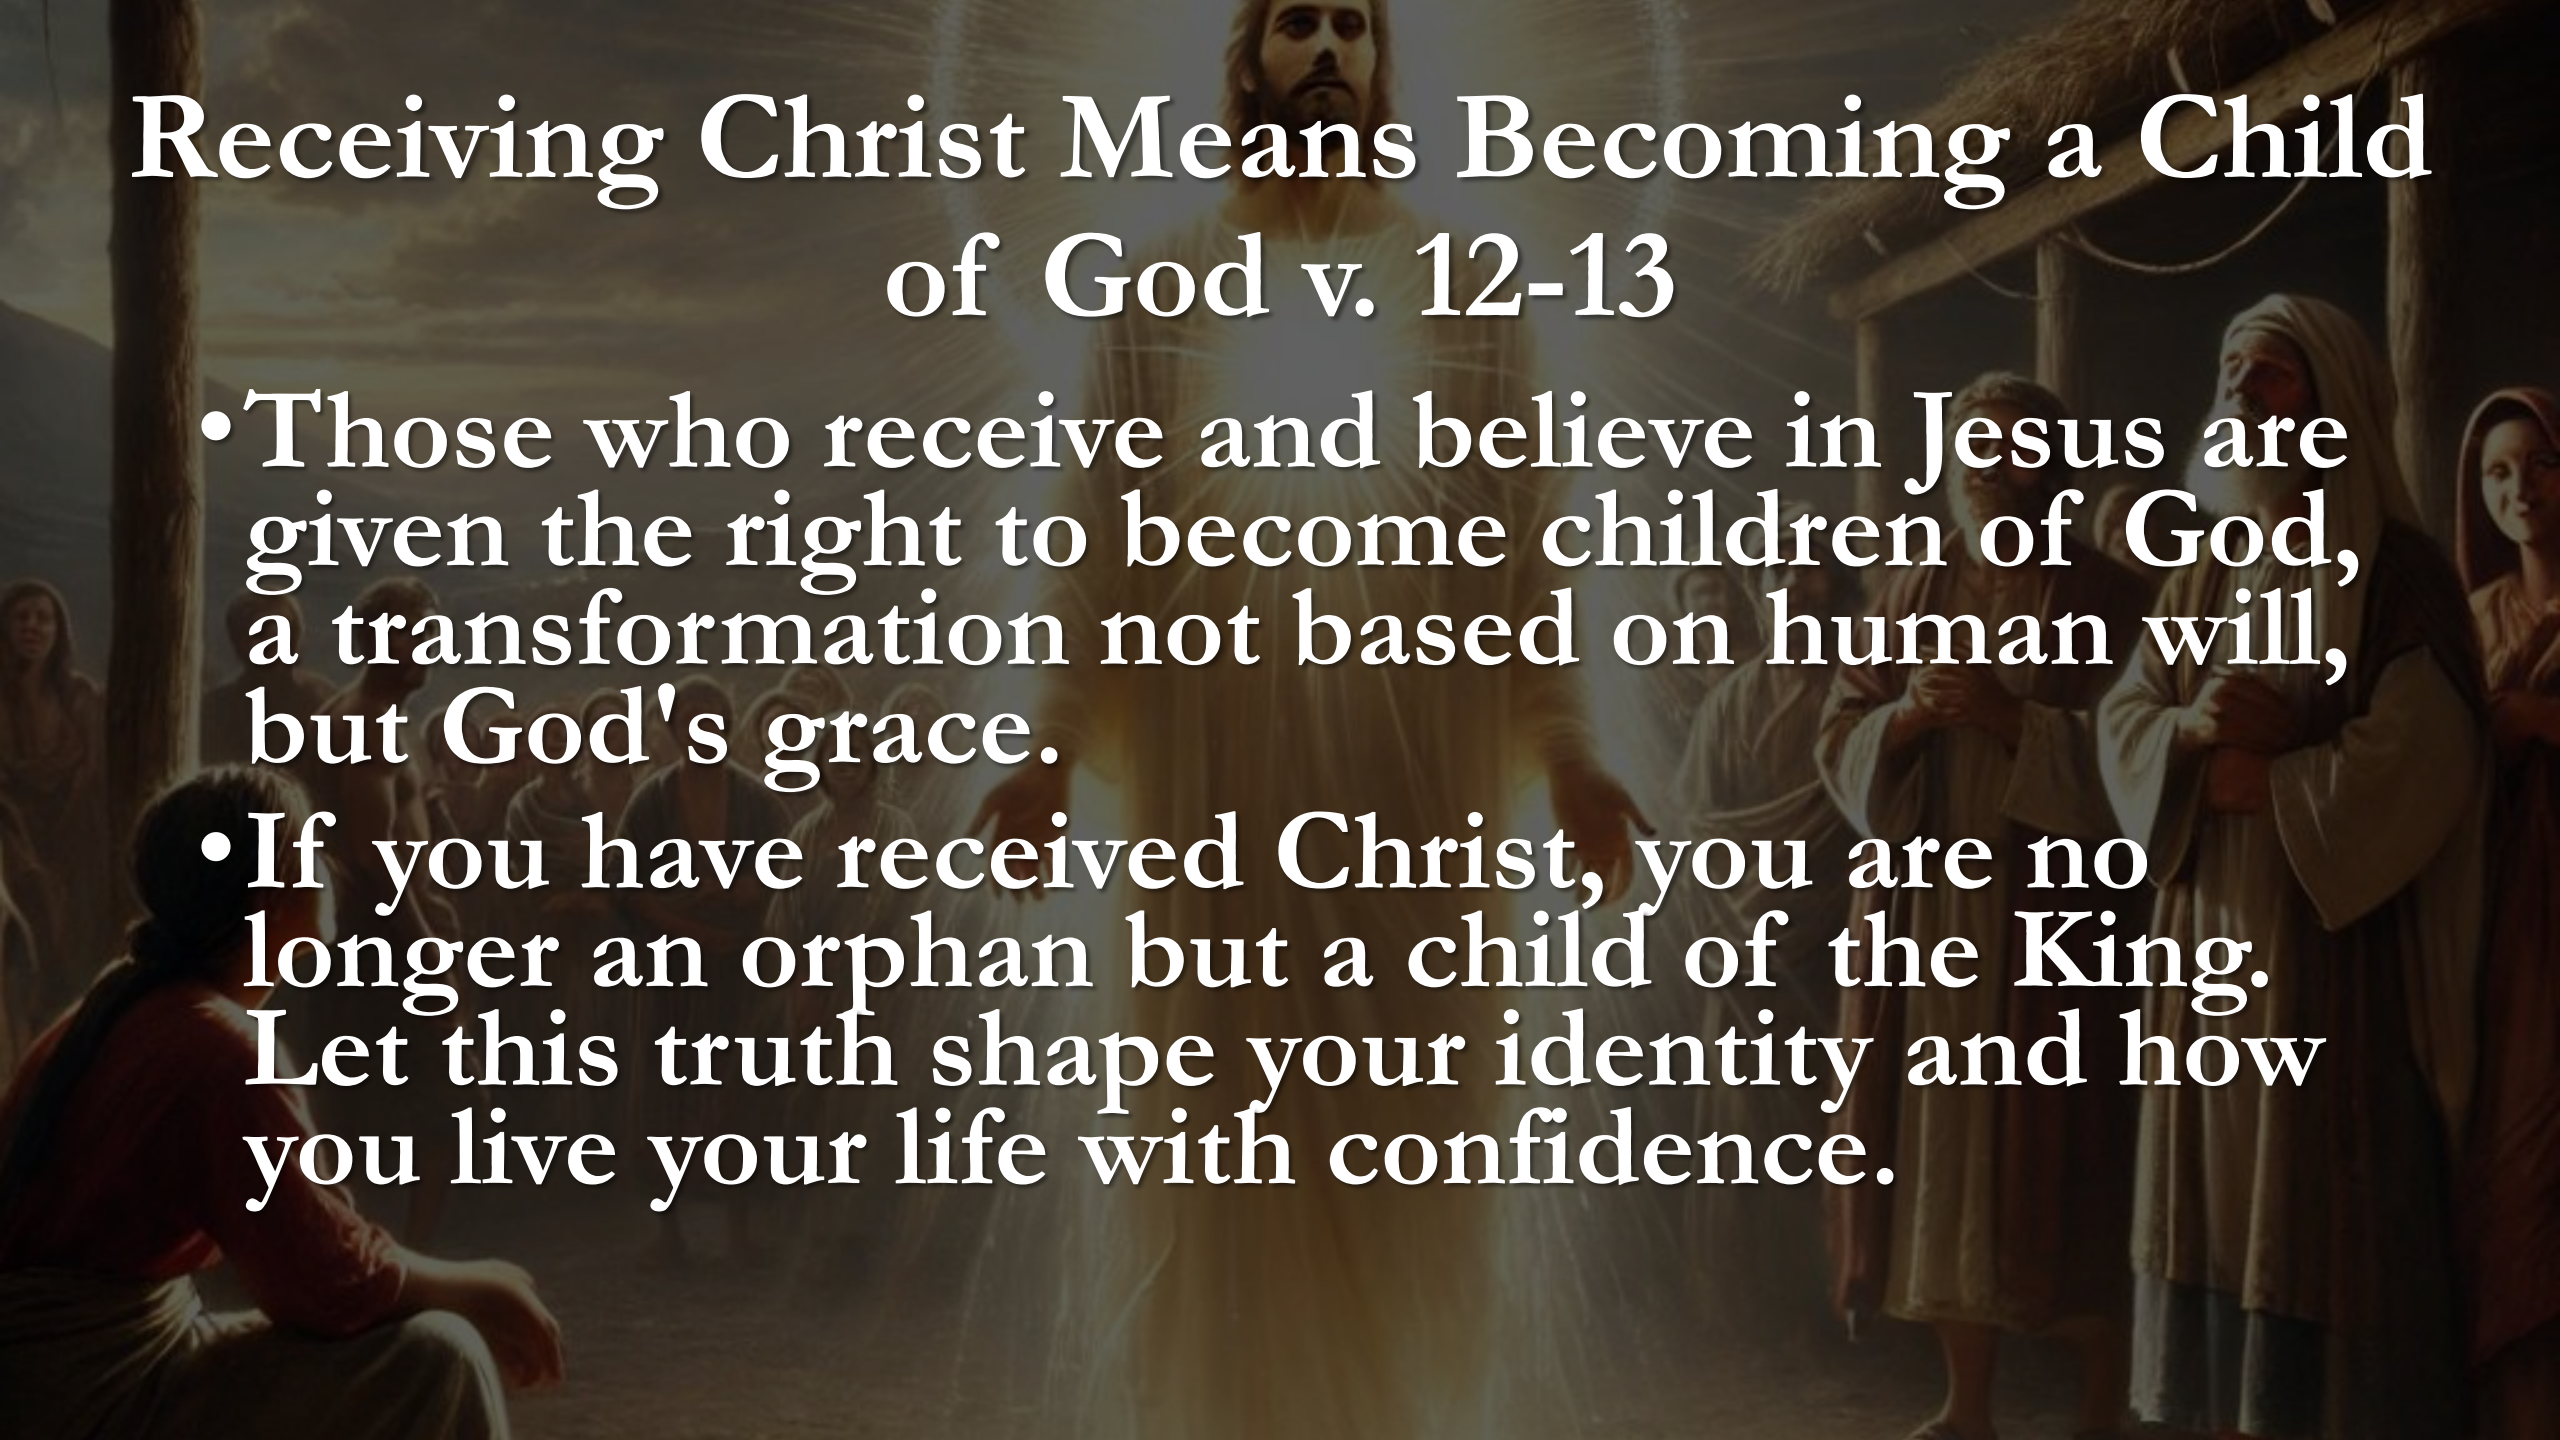

v. 9-11

- Jesus is the "True Light" that gives light to everyone, but the world, due to spiritual blindness, did not recognize Him.
- Are we recognizing the Light of Christ, or are we rejecting Him like the world did? The Light demands a response—acceptance or rejection.

Receiving Christ Means Becoming a Child of God v. 12-13

"But to all who did receive Him, who believed in His name, He gave the right to become children of God, who were born, not of blood nor of the will of the flesh nor of the will of man, but of God."

Receiving Christ Means Becoming a Child of God v. 12-13

- Those who receive and believe in Jesus are given the right to become children of God, a transformation not based on human will, but God's grace.
- If you have received Christ, you are no longer an orphan but a child of the King. Let this truth shape your identity and how you live your life with confidence.

The Word Became Flesh and Dwelt Among Us v. 14-18

"And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen His glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. (John bore witness about Him, and cried out, 'This was He of whom I said, He who comes after me ranks before me, because He was before me.') For from His fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God; the only God, who is at the Father's side, He has made Him known."

The Word Became Flesh and Dwelt Among Us v. 14-18

- The Word (Jesus) became flesh and dwelt among us, fully revealing God's grace and truth, making God known to us through His presence.
- The Incarnation should stir our hearts to worship, gratitude, and deeper faith, as God came near to us through Jesus.

A religious scene with Jesus Christ in the center, surrounded by a crowd of people in a rustic setting. Jesus is standing, wearing a white robe, and looking towards the right. He is surrounded by a crowd of people, some of whom are looking at him. The scene is set in a rustic, outdoor environment with wooden structures and a thatched roof. The lighting is soft and warm, creating a serene atmosphere. The text is overlaid on the scene in a white, serif font.

Main Point

The incarnation of Jesus Christ is the foundation of our faith, calling us to accept the Light, live as children of God, and respond in worship to His grace and truth.
